海外留学のための奨学金に関するお知らせ

Doshisha Law School (Doshisha) has recently entered into an academic cooperation agreement with the University of California Hastings College of the Law (Hastings). Pursuant to this agreement, Hastings has kindly offered to accept one Doshisha graduate recommended by Doshisha each year as a scholarship student in its LL.M. program. The scholarship pays 50% of the Hastings program tuition, which gives it a value of approximately $20,000 at current tuition rates. Students will be responsible for paying the remainder of the tuition as well as travel, lodging and all other costs associated with participating in the LL.M. program.

Students wishing to apply should have a TOEFL score of 600 (PBT) (CBT 250 or greater, or iBT 100 or greater), and otherwise demonstrate adequate levels of academic achievement at Doshisha.

Doshisha graduates or current students expecting to graduate in March of 2010 who wish to apply for the this scholarship for the 2010-2011 LL.M program at Hastings should submit a transcript and personal statement explaining the reasons for their interest in the program to the Doshisha Law School administrative offices (事務室) by no later than October 30, 2009. In the event of multiple applications, applicants may be asked to provide additional documents or participate in interviews with one or more Doshisha faculty members.

The student chosen for recommendation by Doshisha will be responsible for completing and submitting an application to Hastings. All admissions decisions will ultimately be made at the sole discretion of Hastings.

Interested students and graduates may contact Professor Colin P.A. Jones at ji-ls@mail.doshisha.ac.jp for further details.
